Today's Topic . . . The Real Japan

Wednesday, February 8

A lot of TV programs in Japan are similar to TV programs in the U.S., 似ている
but my wife and I like a program that could only be made in Japan. It is Pr.( )-( )
called "Tsurube no Kazoku ni Kanpai!" Tsurube is a comedian, but he is also a great talk show host. In this program, he and a famous guest walk around small towns all over Japan talking to the people who live there.
～しながら (高校) Pr.( )-( )

Why is this so Japanese? First of all, he and his guest don't drive: they 日本的
walk around. Secondly, they like to try the local food and say how Pr.( )-( )
wonderful it is. If you want to see the real Japan, you should watch it.
